

About the Work:

Mafalda Santos uses printed paper as raw material for drawing. In her work, she explores the expanded possibilities and readings this material can evoke, the sound it may suggest and the figuratively coming from abstract shapes. The idea of an object, a book, that has lost its haptic and original function to draw new narratives and forms is what drives these series. In this process, the artist explores ideas of memory, archive and performativity.

Biography

Mafalda Santos (PT, born in 1980)

Mafalda Santos is an artist and programmer. She has been exhibiting in Portugal and abroad since 2001.

Education

Mafalda graduated with a Masters in Painting at the Faculty of Fine Arts of Porto. Before this, she had also graduated from a Visual Arts course in Soares dos Reis High School (specialized in artistic education).

Between 2002 and 2007, she was a programmer for the artist-run space PêSSEGOpráSEMANA, in Porto.

Awards and Scholarships

Won the 2023 Acquisition Award by Imprensa Nacional Casa da Moeda.

In 2007/2008, with a scholarship from the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation and the LusoAmerican Foundation for Development (FLAD), she held a Location One artistic residency in New York.

Selected for the 2007 EDP New Artists Award and in 2005 for the exhibition “7 artistas ao 10o mês” at Fundação Calouste Gulbenkian.

Between 2013 and 2018, together with Manuel Mesquita, she managed the artist residency program “Moinho da Fonte Santa” in Alandroal, Alentejo.
